ARXX
Tired Of You

Band: ARXX

Single: Tired Of You

Release Date: 23rd February 2018

For Fans of... Deep Vally, The Coathangers, The Kills, Kate Nash

Brighton duo ARXX are ready to blast into your eardrums with their seething new single, Tired Of You, out on 23rd February 2018.

Taken from their forthcoming debut EP Daughters Of Daughters, Tired Of You is propelled by a thrashing energy as the immense power of Hannah Pidduck's gritty vocals rage against a backdrop of racing riffs and pummelling beats. Reflecting on the failed expectations of a relationship, it fuses together angst-driven garage-rock with soulful pop sensibilities, with a sound akin to the likes of The Coathangers or Deap Vally.

Impossible to pigeon-hole into one single genre, ARXX pride themselves on creating unapologetically loud music, playing with the expectations of what they 'should' be as women and as artists. With subject matter ranging from cats, to misogyny and addiction, Daughters Of Daughters is a tribute to the music that Pidduck was brought up on by her mother, drawing on an eclectic range of influences and an underlying raw emotion.

Although they've only been making music together since March 2017, when Hannah Pidduck joined forces with drummer Clara Townsend, ARXX have played support slots with PINS, Nova Twins and The Tuts, and are now ready to unleash the full force of their subversive sound with this forthcoming debut.

Daughters Of Daughters, the debut EP from ARXX, is out 23rd February 2018.
