

SINGLE PRESS RELEASE

Albertain The Son's Room

Band: Albertain

Single: The Son's Room

Label: Rhythm And Noir Recordings

Release Date: 23rd February 2018

For Fans of... Steve Mason, Field Music, Baxter Dury, Metronomy

Following the critically acclaimed albums Miss World and A French Connection, Albertain now prepare to share new single The Son's Room, out 23rd February 2018 via Rhythm and Noir Recordings.

The Son's Room is a poignant reflection on memory and loss, inspired by lead singer Phil Shaw's childhood and his relationship with his father. This is first time the band have not included a guitar part, enabling the song to be propelled by funky beats and soaring synths, as thought provoking lyrical storytelling flows. Fusing together folk-inspired musicality with a sweeping electronic soundscape, The Son's Room builds rich sonic layers to create a quirky slice of alt-pop, sounding akin to Field Music or Steve Mason.

Albertain have previously been supported by the likes of BBC 6 Music's Mark Radcliffe and Tom Robinson, as well as by publications such as The Independent, Uncut and Louder Than War, to name a few. Having been featured on Cornershop's Singles Club releases, they have played with everyone from Primal Scream to Field Music and are now ready to impress once more with dark allure of The Son's Room.

The Son's Room is out 23rd February 2018 via Rhythm and Noir Recordings.
