CATS AND CATS AND CATS
IF I'D HAD AN ATLAS

Formed in 2005, Cats and Cats and Cats have been slowly carving out their own musical niche with a satisfying blend of uplifting anthemic, folk inspired pop.

The London five-piece - featuring Eve (violin), Ben (vocals, guitar), Tom (bass, backing vocals), Doug (drums) and Jamie (guitar) – have already shared stages with musical heroes Youthmovies, Forward Russia!, 65 Days of Static, Foals and Blood Red Shoes, as well as performing twice at the legendary Glastonbury Festival.

Previous releases include a split EP with This Town Needs Guns, which placed Cats firmly on the radar of publications such as NME and Rock Sound and gained stellar reviews from popular music website Drowned in Sound. The group have also recorded several Maida Vale sessions for BBC Radio 1's Huw Stephens and Bethan Elfyn.

If I'd Had An Atlas is the fivesome's debut album and their first release on Function Records. The album itself was recorded by Tom Woodhead of Forward Russia! and mastered by Billy Stull, whose works include Okkervil River and Midlake. This 11-song folk-pop journey is the gang's most comprehensive offering to date and takes inspiration from visionaries such as Arcade Fire, Beirut and Neutral Milk Hotel to name but a few.
