"... really catchy rock." - Alex Baker, Kerrang! Radio

"... big chorus, floating harmonies and soaring guitars." - Artrocker

Daydream Frenzy are all set to unveil their debut album, Pride & Wonder, due for release on March 30th 2015 via Daydream Records.

The three-piece, who derive from just outside Aberdeen, have been building momentum over the last three years through their continuous live performances, which has led to a steady rise on the Scottish live scene, as well as the release of two EP's. It's easy to see why the band have picked up a following in such a short time with their ability to write a killer melody allied to their angsty, heartfelt lyrics and sprawling, chugging guitar pieces.

Pride & Wonder exhibits these traits and more throughout the record. From the opening gambit of instrumental leader 'Maiori (Nuovo Inizio)' to the impossibly catchy, and Twin Atlantic inspired, upbeat pop-punk of 'All The World'. Then there's the experimental electro-pop offering of 'Rêverie', feeding off the spirit of bands such as Prides and Foals, to acoustic track 'Wandering Man', which recreates the foot stomping heart emoting by the likes of Lumineers. Sonically, there is a lot going on here as Daydream Frenzy illustrate a refreshing flexibility in their songwriting and a willingness to traverse genres.

Formed in January 2010, Daydream Frenzy are made up of Donald Barclay (vocals/guitar), Hamish Gordon (drums) and Fraser Henderson (bass). In 2011 they released their debut EP Calling Stars before following this up with their second EP Colours and Sound. This helped the band announce their arrival as an up-and-comers and saw them pick up support from the likes of Kerrang! Radio, Amazing Radio, Scuzz TV, XFM, Artrocker and STV, leading to support slots with Big Country, The Maine and Don Bronco and will see them co-headline a national tour with Divides throughout March and April.

Pride & Wonder is released via Daydream Records on March 30th 2015.
