

SINGLE PRESS RELEASE

Hundreds Circus

“...sophisticated, eminently listenable and elegant.”

- Notion Magazine

Release date: 17th March 2014

Label: Sinnbus

For fans of... Joan As Policewoman, Cate le Bon, Charlotte Gainsbourg

Hundreds return with the single Circus, taken from their fourth album Aftermath. The album is a masterclass in classy, stripped-back Electro, playing with the more organic elements of sound to create something truly astonishing. Circus is a wonderful showcase of their talents as sonic manipulators, shaping a playful and uplifting track, with subtle drum loops and gorgeous melodies running under Eva Milner's understated vocals.

Originally from Hamburg, sibling duo Eva and Philip Milner (aka Hundreds) have been working on the material for their new album for the last 18 months. Their music has captured the dynamic of their creative process, filled with grand emotions and hypnotic arcs of suspense, followed by quieter moments of introspection. On the other side of this process of creation they have still held onto their Electro roots, but have now discovered a warmer, and more song-oriented sound that's more organic than their previous offerings.

Circus is about catharsis. Allowing yourself to step back from self-criticism, and see yourself from the outside. Silencing your inner captious critic and giving yourself a release, the freedom to dance. Once you start, the dance will never end.

Circus is released 17th March via Sinnbus.
