

SINGLE PRESS RELEASE

Nick Wilson
All The Same

Band: Nick Wilson
Single: All The Same
Release Date: 1st June 2018
For Fans of... Aquilo, Honne, Haux

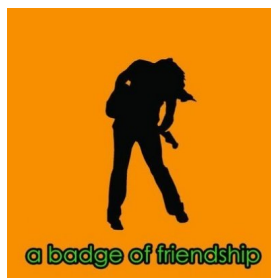

Nick Wilson returns with another slice of ambient alt-pop on single All The Same, out on 1st June 2018 via AWAL (Kobalt).

Inspired by the pain that comes with leaving someone you love, All The Same is a stirring piece of electro pop. It interweaves textured, cinematic soundscapes with Wilson's emotive vocals to create a delicate, heart-rending power that is second to none. Showcasing Wilson's impressive songwriting ability with a sound akin to Honne or Aquilo, All The Same is an evocative ballad that'll captivate immediately on first listen. Of the track, Wilson explains, "leaving someone may be the most logical thing to do, and you could even be the one ending things, but it still kills you inside in some way. It's a really heartbreaking sentiment."

Since releasing music for six years and self-producing in his bedroom, Nick Wilson has previously received acclaim from BBC Introducing and supported the likes of Gabrielle Aplin and Martin Luke Brown. Now, with over 400,000 Spotify monthly listeners, he hopes to continue tugging at our heartstrings with the musically rich splendour of All The Same.

All The Same is out on 1st June 2018 via AWAL (Kobalt).
