Innovative pop band POLSKY return with their energy-filled, brand new single, Halcyon Daze, out on 21st November 2016 via PRODUCT.

Following the release of their frenetic debut album My Own Company, released in April this year, Halcyon Daze masterfully fuses together an eclectic range of sounds, combining catchy indie-rock melodies with uptempo '80s dance beats and a post-punk urgency, a perfect illustration of POLSKY's diverse, yet catchy, sound.

Evolving from merely a laptop in a bedroom to a fully-formed pop group, POLSKY have spent the past twelve months promoting their music to a wider audience and have certainly proved they're ones to watch. With founder Chris Warren (vocals, guitar) previously working with the Cocteau Twins' Robin Guthrie, as well as well as playing in bands such as Shadow Orchestra and agit-pop band BIB, ably supported by Ben Warn (keyboards), Alex Robertson (drums) and Chris Norman (bass), POLSKY have the foundations in place to provide unerringly infectious pop anthems alongside insightful social commentary.

POLSKY's previous supporters include Clash Magazine, Gigslut, The Revue, Indietronica and The Vinyl District and with new single Halcyon Daze, they've once again proven the type of inspired, innovative music they're capable of creating. So, join POLSKY as they embark on the next stage of their sonic journey, a journey everyone is invited to join.

Halcyon Daze by POLSKY is out on 21st November 2016 via PRODUCT.
