

Phantom Album Launch

The Lexington | August 24th 2010

"The aural equivalent of a black cat sneaking across silk sheets..."
- Q Magazine

To celebrate the release of their debut album Smoke & Mirrors, Phantom will play The Lexington on the 24th August 2010. Support comes from Hyrst and King Antics with very special guest DJs, John Doran and Luke Turner of TheQuietus.com.

Phantom's strength is being able to create an atmosphere; therefore it's apt that Smoke & Mirrors - provided in two 22-minute parts with no track marks - is seamless when played in sequence. The songs build and bleed into one another just as they do during Phantom's captivating live set. A remix of "We Float" by Death In Plains is also featured on the album. Death In Plains is a visual/musical adventure, the brainchild of Enrico Boccioletti, who creates a sound that joins Fuck Buttons to Jesus and Mary Chain via MGMT.

The band don't lose this sound live either. The delectable duo play a seamless set with each hauntingly beautiful song seamlessly melding into another. This is the perfect chance to capture the true essence of Smoke & Mirrors live, an experience that promises to be aurally sensual and undeniably delightful.
