"...a gleaming, slo-mo electronic pop dream..." – The Line of Best Fit

Danish artist Skylar Fri returns with another ethereal new single, Without You I'm Just A Body, out 27th April 2018 via AntiFragile Music.

Without You I'm Just A Body is about the loneliness experienced in single-mindedly pursuing perceived goals. Skylar Fri elaborates, "it's about that sudden realisation that no matter how much you run, no matter how much you chase those golden sunsets, and no matter how much you learn to love yourself... there is huge power in being truly loved by another human being." Fri's spectral vocals drift effortlessly, sounding similar to the haunting stylings of Lana Del Rey and Lykke Li. Driven by that sense of escapism, Without You I'm Just A Body is yet another example of her continued ability to create poignant and sophisticated alt-pop.

Skylar Fri's previous singles Better and Gold Rush have already received praise from the likes of Noisey, Clash, Wonderland, The Line of Best Fit and Dork to name but a few. With Without You I'm Just A Body, Skylar Fri will captivate listeners further with her celestial, Scandinavian chill-pop.

Without You I'm Just A Body is out on 27th April 2018 via AntiFragile Music (www.antifragilemusic.com).
