A Badge of Friendship will host a screening of documentary The Death of "Superman Lives": What Happened? at Restless Natives Festival on Monday 9th May 2016 at St. Luke's, Glasgow. Following the screening there will be an exclusive live Q&A via Skype with director Jon Schnepf and producer Holly Payne.

Documentary The Death of "Superman Lives": What Happened? is a film about possibly the greatest superhero film never made.

Superman Lives was set to be directed by Tim Burton and produced by Jon Peters, with Nicolas Cage in the starring role as The Man of Steel. It was intended for release in the 1990s but just before it was about to go into production, the project was completely scrapped and it became the stuff of Hollywood legends... that is until film-making duo director Jon Schnepf and producer Holly Payne crowd-funded The Death of "Superman Lives": What Happened? in 2015, exploring the fabled movie's unfortunate fate in-depth.

Tickets can be purchased from the Restless Natives website.
